“Utilizing a Waldorf approach in nurturing young children and families”

Hens & Chicks is a quiet, nurturing space for mothers at the very beginning of their parenting journey—whether you are preparing to welcome your first little one or stepping once again into the sacred season of life with a new baby in your arms. – This class offers a gentle rhythm of rest and renewal. We begin in the soft stillness of our Waldorf classroom, where candlelight, tea, and thoughtful conversation create space for you to breathe deeply and feel held in community. You’ll have the opportunity to observe your child’s development, share questions and reflections, and experience the comfort of being with other mothers in a judgment-free, supportive circle.

We include a tender circle time with lullabies, lap games, and seasonal songs that nourish both baby and mother. While our focus is on connection and community, we also explore the foundations of Waldorf parenting and ways to bring beauty, rhythm, and simplicity into your home life.

Hens & Chicks offers a peaceful weekly rhythm to support body, mind, and spirit in the early days of motherhood—whether it’s your first time or a tender return to postpartum life.

Please bring with you a pair of indoor shoes or slippers.
